Low Venice School Tax Rate Cited Too Voters

Groups Being Asked By School Officials To Support Rate Increase

The Venice school district currently has the lowest tax rate of all community unit school systems in Madison county, school officials pointed out today in discussing the approaching tax rate election Saturday, Aug. 8.

The present $1.25 education rate in Venice compares with rates of $1.75 in Granite City, $1.44 in Wood River, $1.51 in Roca, $1.50 in Madison and Collinsville, $1.48 in Alton, $1.40 in Edwardsville, $1.30 in Livingston. Authorization for a 40 percent increase is sought.

Total Venice school rate of $1.69 on each $100 assessed valuation compares with rates ranging from $1.95 to $2.32 in other Madison county school districts. The East Alton-Wood River high school rate is $1.01 but is combined with either the Wood River elementary rate of $1.80 or the East Alton elementary rate of $1.87.

The ballot for the special election in Venice will read as follows:

"Shall the board of education of Community Unit School District No. 3, Madison county, Ill., be authorized to levy a tax annually upon all of the taxable property of the district not to exceed 1.65% for education purposes upon the full fair cash value as equalized and assessed by the Department of Revenue?"

$151,000 Yearly Budget
A total of $151,000 in taxes now extended under the "present maximum rate of 1.25%" at $474,668. The tax rate for this fund would be $625,242, it is stated.

A single polling place is to be operated at the Venice grade school gymnasium, 740 (near Broadway, between Madison and 7 p.m. on the election day.

Venice school board members are currently seeking support from citizens groups for passage of the educational rate increase.

Supt. John O. Pier told the Press-Record that several board members are in the process of meeting with various service organizations in the community to better acquaint them with present and probable financial needs of the school district.

Explanation Of Request
An explanatory booklet outlining the board's thinking in requesting the educational tax increase has been prepared by the superintendent.

School Board President Michael E. Leatherman Jr. has pledged that the full tax increase would not be levied on taxpayers at the present time.

In seeking voters' approval of the maximum increase permitted at one time, board members indicated that they wished to avoid the expense of an additional school tax referendum, which they believe might otherwise prove necessary within a two or three year period.

Costs, Salaries Rising
In urging support of the educational rate increase, school authorities note the rising cost of operations, including teachers' salaries, school supplies, improvements and increasing enrollment.

Supt. Pier reported that Venice high school requires 40 new textbooks each year from local parochial schools.

Including supplies, transportation, and facility improvements, estimates on the cost of educating a high school student exceed 60% more than that expended annually in the educational process for an elementary pupil.

School board members have gone on record as saying that should the tax rate increase fail to gain approval, certain services now offered in the Venice public schools might have to be curtailed. Those mentioned included the district's kindergarten, cafeteria and foreign language courses, among others.

In the booklet, submitted by Pier, he notes that 82% of the annual budget from the educational fund is allocated for salaries, with only 18% remaining for textbooks, supplies, insurance, utilities and tax objections.

Two Under Surgery
William Breidenbach, Rural Route One and Road 100, is recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which underwent since Thursday.

Mitchell Postal Substation To Be Opened Aug. 10

The U. S. post office department has approved a contract for use of a newly constructed building at 306 East Chain of Rocks road as a classified branch of the Granite City post office, according to an announcement from the Washington office of Cong. Melvin Price.

Negotiation of the contract was completed with Lloyd E. Mouser, Rural Route One, a building contractor, who said he will establish his own offices in the same building. Another set of two offices will be occupied by the American Transit Co., Mouser said.

The structure has just been completed and was built for the purpose of leasing it to the post office department as a branch office. Cost of the structure was $33,600.

Five-Year Lease
The contract provides a five-year lease with two five-year renewal options. It will provide the post office with 1420 square feet of interior space and a truck dock of 96 square feet.

Annual rental on the brick building is $1800 under terms of the post office contract. The building is to be occupied for post office purposes in June 10.

Granite City Postmaster W. T. Overbeck said the substation will replace the old Mitchell post office which was closed earlier this year.

One clerk will be assigned to the station to handle sale of stamps and other activities, but no carrier service will be on the East Alton elementary rate of $1.87.

Building, Police Codes Amended By Pontoon Board

A brick housing construction amendment was among the latest amendments passed on Thursday night at a monthly meeting of the Pontoon Beach Board of Ordinance.

The board passed a septic tank ordinance, amended the "present maximum rate of 1.25%" at $474,668. The tax rate for this fund would be $625,242, it is stated.

The original building code of the village did not include construction specifications. The new amendment requires all brick veneered houses to be built in a mechanical fashion, with full head joint and wall ties to be used every four feet.

All frame buildings covered with brick are defined as brick veneer. The new amendment.

New Police Titles
The previous police station established with some titles of marshal (chief) and three deputies. With the creation of the village, Deputy Mike Hensley was promoted to captain and Deputy Robert Thompson to sergeant.

The new ordinance approved requires persons who manufacture or install pre-cast septic tanks and electrical systems to obtain a village license costing $25. Inspections will be made and a flashing light is not warranted at present for the intersection of Route 111 and Pontoon Beach.

Krause said the number of accidents at the intersection decreased from three in 1962 to three in 1963.

The board referred to the ordinance committee questions concerning dog incinerations, speed zones on Jones Park drive and parking on Jones Park drive and Lake street.

It approved liquor licenses for three taverns in the village. Frank Zamaroni, Charles Packer and Mrs. Mary Borer, were noted to make the electricity bill a standing bill not requiring board authorization for payment.

Great To Show
Village President Thomas Stalton said.

100 Bid Farewell To GC Student Musicians
"Have music; will travel." Wearing sunglasses, bright shirts and blouses and Bermuda shorts, a Latin American band of 13 students, members of the Latin American rhythmic ensemble left Granite City at 1:20 p.m. Friday to begin a month-long concert tour of 16 states in Mexico. It will be their second tour of the country in three years.

They will waste no time in starting the tour, as they will give a concert in Monterrey at 9 p.m. today.

About 100 relatives and friends, including Granite City Mayor Leonard Davis, were on hand at the entrance to Cobblestone junior high school, braving 90-degree heat, to wish the group farewell.

Davis said the city is "quite proud" of the youngsters and Robert D. Todoroff, director of the ensemble. He also commended work being done by Eugene Alesi, supervisor of art education for the Granite City school who is handling public relations for the tour.

19 Theft, Burglary Cases In This Area

Crimes During Weekend Involve Autos, Service Stations, Residences

Service stations, homes and autos figured in many of the reports as police and deputies in the Quad-Cities and surrounding area sought to solve a variety of burglaries and thefts during the weekend.

Reports totaled 19, a tabulation at noon today showed. Included was the robbery and shooting of a Venice man.

The building activity was due to a burglary at a Venice man's home, which was reported by James Mayberry, proprietor.

The first was Friday night when someone broke the lock on a man's washroom door and took a coin machine. The second was Saturday night when a lower garage window was broken and change was taken from cigarette and candy machines.

Station Burglary
Burglars tore the telephone from the wall and took it during a break-in Friday night at the Derby service station, Highway 203 south of Madison, it was reported by Gene Whitlinton of Collinsville, station manager.

Glass was broken and bars on a window on the east side of the building were sawed to gain entry.

Charles Smith, 42, of 1112 Market street, Venice, was robbed and cut by three unidentified men while driving on Fourth avenue in St. Louis Saturday night.

Smith had halted for a stop sign when the trio jumped into his auto, stole his wallet and slashed him on the right arm. He received emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Stolen TV Returned

Mitchell Airport Plan 'Only In Talking Stage'

Published reports that Foster Aviation Limited, an aircraft rental firm based in Chicago, will develop a new airport and industrial center just outside of Mitchell, Madison county, are "no more than a preliminary talking stage" and no detailed plans of any type have been worked out.

The reports said the development was to include an airport, an aircraft rental and sales business, adjacent industrial tract, a motel, covering a 150-acre tract.

"We have only talked about the possibility of such a project," said Mitchell County board of actual planning, no financing arrangements, no zoning or any other type of plan has been developed it would be another ten months before we could make any kind of an announcement."

Buying Power Given High Rating

Local Earnings, Growth Tell Story Of Business Vitality
(Special to the Press-Record)

Enclosed Horizon
The increased purchasing power proved to be a boon for Granite City's retail merchants. Local business, with more cash in their pockets and with confidence in their economic horizon, are more inclined to spend for goods and services.

As a result, retail sales in the area amounted to $1,685,000, up from the 1962 figure of $472,386.00.

Most people throughout the country have been able to better their financial position during the past two or three years, thanks to one of the most sustained booms in American history.

The reports show more people at work than ever before. They also show, however, no significant change in the number of unemployed.

Buying Is Determined
The relative standing of one community to another—with respect to market strength and potential—is given in the survey through a "quality of market" index.

This takes into account local income, population, volume of spending and rate of growth. The index rating for Granite City is given as 102, or 2% higher than the national average.

What this averaged out to on a per-family basis was arrived at by dividing the income of the nation by the number of local households. It came to $7565 per household.

This was more than was available in most parts of the United States after providing for inflation. The income of the United States for 1963 was $7130 per household. In the East North Central States, it was $7558.

Lengthy Rail Tax Trial Ends, Eyes Of State On Outcome

Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr. has under study today a vast accumulation of evidence and exhibits presented in more than six months of hearings of long-embattled railroad tax objection cases.

Hearing of the tax protests, some of which date back as far as 1957 tax year, came to an end in circuit court at Edwardsville at 5 p.m. Friday. Communities throughout the state will be awaiting the verdict, which is expected within several weeks.

Repairs To Homes Continue At Rapid Pace: 53 Permits

The continuing pace of repairs to homes caused by last spring's hail storm was shown as residents obtained 45 building permits last week before it was announced that a waiver of building permit fees had been extended another three months.

A total of 53 permits, listing values of $53,072, was issued during the week and raised the totals for the month to 149 permits with values of $136,138.

The building activity was due to a burglary at a Venice man's home, which was reported by James Mayberry, proprietor.

The first was Friday night when someone broke the lock on a man's washroom door and took a coin machine. The second was Saturday night when a lower garage window was broken and change was taken from cigarette and candy machines.

Railroads File New Protests To '63 Tax

Two Lines First To Object, Mostly On Basis Of Assessments

Despite a 35% reduction in property assessments granted by the Illinois State Department of Revenue early this year, Madison county railroads already have begun filing protests to their 1963 tax bills, it was learned today.

First of the 1963 objections were made by the Illinois Terminal Railroad and the Illinois Central Railroad, which made payments on their tax bills at the county treasurer's office and Edwardsville, and while so doing tied up $33,532 with former protest notices.

Tax objection complaints are filed with the county clerk after tax bills are paid under protest, since these have not yet been recorded.

Surprise To Officials
The move came as a surprise to county officials, who assumed that a reduction of $11,762,062 in the total assessed valuation of all railroads operating in Madison county last year would be the answer to the constant tax attacks by railroads upon their assessments.

Protest notices filed with the county clerk's office, which showed that the biggest part of the taxes paid under protest are based on assessments.

The big slash in rail valuations was certified to the county clerk's office in January by the Illinois State Department of Revenue, which fixed 1963 rail assessments for Madison county at $2,624,859, a 35% reduction from the 1962 valuation of $3,386,921 for the 1962 year.

These taxes now being paid under protest are based on the 1963 reduced valuations.

Records in the treasurer's office show that Illinois Terminal Railroad taxes of $45,697, which represent the first installment, or one-half, of its 1963 tax bill of $91,394, were paid in full.

Of the $43,697 installment, the Terminal protested $14,371; of this amount, $10,638 is protested on the basis of assessments and the balance on rates.

Payment of the second installment is expected to include a similar protest amount, which would bring the Terminal's total tax objection for the year to $28,742.

Dispute Involves $15
The Illinois Central paid its entire 1963 tax bill of $35,409 but protested $10,160, or 54% of the amount, to the county clerk. It also protested $17,000 as assessments and the balance on rates.

Filing of the new protests came just as the long-standing tax objection cases were being drawn to a close in court. The cases just being commenced are for the 1963 railroads' tax objections for the year 1962.

Earlier filing of railroad protests was impossible because of the delay in completion of tax books for five Madison county townships. Last of the books were completed by the county clerk's office several weeks ago, enabling the railroads to obtain their final, county-wide tax bills.

The new titleholder was accompanied to Aurora by her mother, Mrs. Charles Parmlay, 2209 Lincoln avenue, who is acting as her official chaperone, and Mr. and Mrs. James Spinks, 1516 Clark avenue. Spinks served as co-chairman of the recently-held Miss Granite City contest.

Later this week, they will be joined by local Jaycee President Paul Morris and Mrs. Morris. Miss Parmlay won the coveted honor Saturday, July 11, when she was selected to represent the community from a field of nine candidates. With her title, she received a $150 scholarship award from the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Alton, a $50 wardrobe, a trophy and an all-expense paid trip to the state pageant.

Talent Presentation

The new Miss Granite City is five feet, five-and-a-half inches in height, with reddish-brown hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. She weighs 117 pounds and her measurements are 34-23-36. For her talent presentation in Aurora, Miss Parmlay will repeat her contest-winning performance to the song, "Honeydew," from the Broadway musical, "South Pacific."

Char Lee is employed as a Friden programic flexewriter operator in the sales department of Granite City Steel Co., having joined the firm in 1963 following her graduation from Granite City high school.

She is active in the Granite City Steel Salaried Women's club and the St. John's Lutheran Young People's Society. Her sorority is Beta Sigma Phi, Phi Beta Tau chapter.

Events leading up to the big event on Saturday night will include a parade through the downtown streets of Aurora with the charms of each contestant specified as she rides in an open convertible.

Rehearsals, interviews and other special events are featured throughout the week, with the official judging to commence Wednesday evening.

To enable each candidate the best possible opportunity in which to display her personality, talent and beauty, it was decided the 39 girls will be divided into three separate units. Each unit will be judged at different times.

Selection of Miss Illinois is based on points accumulated for the best appearance in an evening gown, the best appearance in a swimsuit and her talent presentation. Personality, poise and intelligence enter into all phases of the judging.

Miss Parmlay's presentation Wednesday evening, on Thursday afternoon, the candidates will be honored at a judges' luncheon where they will meet the contest judges for the first time for individual interviews. Until Wednesday, identity of those judging the pageant will remain unannounced.

Tax, Fee, Mobile Home Law Rulings

Payment under protest of delinquent real or personal property taxes is not authorized by law, Illinois Attorney General William G. Clark said last week in one of a series of new rulings.

The statutory fee of a sheriff for selling property pursuant to a writ of the circuit court does not belong to the sheriff personally, but is a fee of his office, Clark held.

Admitting that "the matter is not free from doubt," Clark said that a county may by ordinance restrict the use and occupancy of a mobile home or trailer to a trailer coach park. Such an ordinance, Clark's opinion held, would also prohibit the use of a trailer as a single family dwelling.

"The State School Building Commission is not immune" from being charged by a village for sewer and water connections at a school building for the erection of which the commission has contracted.

However, Clark's operation related, this conclusion does not mean that the state or the commission can be subjected "to any discriminatory, unlawful or unreasonable charges for these services."

A total of $881 has been returned by 31 members of a "bull club" by the operator of the club as the first result of Clark's ruling against such clubs. He said that Thomson Custom Tailors in Loves Park agreed to and has refunded sums collected from customers of the "club."

Clark also has advised that there should be but one indictment for reckless driving or manslaughter resulting from multiple deaths in a single accident.

Twins Win Graphic Arts Industry Scholarships

Thomas and Edwin Murphy, twins, 2412 Lincoln avenue, 1964 graduates of Granite City high school, have been awarded four-year scholarships of $1000 a year by the National Scholarship Trust Fund of the Education Council of the Graphic Arts Industry to attend Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Top Six Industries

The scholarships were granted for college studies in preparation for careers in the printing and publishing industry, which ranks among the top six major U. S. industries in terms of number of employees, number of establishments and salaries and wages paid.

New technological developments affecting the industry plus a rapid expansion in the size of companies and need for professional management has stimulated over 100 colleges to establish major and degree-granting courses in printing management, printing design, printing engineering and printing teacher education.

The Murphy brothers have also received honorary state scholarships and $300 scholarships from the Granite City Scholarship Foundation. Both recognition in their own tests while in high school. Edwin graduated 24th and Thomas 20th in a class of 608. They are members of the National Honor Society.

Thomas and Edwin are the twins of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Murphy sr. Their interest in printing dates from 1955, when they received a toy printing press. Since 1957, they have operated a 3x5 plate press as a hobby.

Joint Water Tap-Ons Banned At Eagle Park
Cleveland Johnson, president of the Eagle Park Improvement Association, today warned residents of the unincorporated area that immediate steps are to be taken by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co., against anyone who allows illegal tap-ons to a water line.
Johnson said water meters will be removed from homes of those who permit neighbors to tap on illegally. Previously, the company had allowed joint tap-ons. However, a new ruling outlawed the practice and requires each residence to have a meter.
Residents who wish to have water brought to their property line must pay a fee of $103 to the First National Bank in Madison. Johnson said, and a $15 meter charge at the water company's Granite City office, 1935 Delmar avenue.
Eleven months ago, the association initiated the first water line brought into the unincorporated area with the assistance of the Madison bank, which underwrote the project for a sum of $5500, Johnson reported.

Schaffner, 609 Washington avenue, Venice, and Gerald J. Lipchik, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. James M. Lipchik, 2121 Garfield avenue.

The Rev. Paul Surby officiated at 4 o'clock, using the double ring service.

Proceeding the ceremony the soloist, Mrs. Joe Kulkowski of Springfield, Mo., a cousin of the bride, sang "With This Ring" and "I Love You Truly." During the service, the couple knelt at the altar, she sang the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Isabel Schmidt, the church organist, accompanied and played the traditional wedding marches.

The candlelighters, Misses Jill Ellen and Julie Beth Kulkowski, were attended in short white dresses accented with pink bows.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Gerald J. Lipchik.

She wore a gown of imported silk organza over taffeta. The modest bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline outlined with imported Venice lace re-embroidered with pearls. Canelet sleeves reached to the elbow. The controlled skirt of silk organza was overlaid at the front waistline with a row of appliqued lace which followed the lines of the skirt to the hem. The waistline back was secured to the bodice with a bow of silk organza, and a panel of Venice lace on each side outlined the graceful chapel train.

A short, bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. The only ornament worn by the bride was a necklace of pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and stephanotis enhanced with feathery fern.

The bride chose her cousin, Mrs. Robert Cantrell of Wayneville, Mo., as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. George Schaffner, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Larry Gray, a classmate of the bride, and Miss Kathleen Lipchik, the bridegroom's sister.

GAUDREAU INFANT CHRISTENED SUNDAY

Philip James Gaudreau, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gaudreau, 1716 Courtenay drive, was christened Sunday at St. Elizabeth Catholic church service.

Lighted candles in brass candleholders at each side of the altar adorned with bouquets of white gladioli and pink chrysanthemums, together with a brass kneeling bench flanked with palms, provided the setting Sunday evening at Calvary Baptist Church for the wedding of Miss Patricia Gale Pyrtle of Alton, Ill., and Richard Lee Crabtree of Collinsville.

The bride, a graduate of Granite City high school and Southern Illinois University, is a teacher in the Highland school system. Mr. Crabtree graduated from Roodhouse high school and attended Illinois State Normal University and Northwestern Illinois University. He is a teacher in the Collinsville schools.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Pyrtle Jr., 3124 Princeton drive and Mr. and Mrs. Buell Crabtree, Roodhouse, Ill.

Rev. Wilbert Snider heard the vows of the couple at 7:30 and the bride's parents held a reception at the church immediately afterward.

The former Miss Pyrtle wore a full-length gown of nylon organza over silk tulle. The fitted bodice was designed with a portrait neckline and long sleeves which came to points at the hands. Motifs of re-embroidered Alencon lace gave added detail to the bodice and the semi-controlled skirt flared from the basque waist, terminating in a chapel train. Matching train motifs adorned the front of the skirt.

A bouffant veil of imported bridal illusion was secured to a crown of seed pearls and crystal buds and the bride's bouquet was a teardrop cascade of white carnations, stephanotis and greenery centered with a white orchid corsage.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Judy Propp, a bride's maid, and Mrs. Marian Lipscomb, bridesmaid, were dressed as Southern belles in identical gowns of pastel pink silk organza over taffeta. The white bertha collars were accented with chevron lace and the long bell skirts were attached to tight bodices.

Hoodpieces were made of imported straw braid, the crowns encircled with wide bands of ribbon with streamers. They carried parasols of white lace and net filled with pink carnations with corsages attached.

The flower girl, Linda Parish, a cousin of the bride, wore a pink and white flowered silk organza dress with a pink bow at the waist. A band of pink rosebuds was in her hair and she held a white basket filled with rose petals.

Ronald L. Cranford of Wood River was best man for the bride, and serving as groomsmen and ushers were Virgil Kasning of Collinsville, Clinton Vanzant, a cousin of the bride, and Ed Propp.

The bride's mother was gown-bearer in peacock blue lace and crepe, while the bridegroom's mother appeared in blue tulle. Both wore white accessories and corsages of white carnations.

Hearts Top Heaters But Mercers Strand 15 Runners in Loss

Sacred Heart upset St. Clair Heating of East St. Louis 8-2 yesterday but Mercer Funeral Home missed a chance to capitalize on that decision by losing 6-5 to Troy's Redbirds.

The hot bat of Frank Hiedge paced the Hearts' victory over the Heaters, leading team in the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League's Blue Division, at Wilson Park. A win by the Mercers would have put them within a half-game of the Blue lead but they stranded 15 baserunners and were victimized by a bases-loaded triple play.

Hiedge slammed five hits in five at-bats and drove in three runs. The Hearts' leftfielder hit a solo home run in the second inning and singled in his other four appearances.

Lefty Cecil Simpson pitched the six-hit triumph. St. Clair, the defending league champion, couldn't score until the ninth inning.

St. Clair now has an 8-4 record to Mercers' 7-6 mark, so the Granite Citys still trail by 1 1/2 games. Collinsville, the Red Division front-runner, took a forfeit from Alwood and stands 12-2, four games ahead of the Hearts (8-8).

Dillon Slaps Three Backing Hiedge in the Sacred Heart victory, young second baseman Mike Dillon with three singles in five tries. Batting in the fourth slot, he drove off one run. Adrian Rains added two hits to the team total of 15.

Sacred Heart jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first on singles by Dillon, Hiedge, a hit batsman, the sacrifice and singles by Eddie Rains.

They added two in the seventh on Babe Champion's inside-the-park homer, an error and Roger's run-producing single. Art Borchers had the team's other hit.

Second Assembly Shift Being Added At Smith Plant

The first newly converted assembly line producing a new 1965 model auto frames at the A. O. Smith plant will be supplemented with a second shift of workers Wednesday, it was announced today.

A company spokesman said at the same time that a second assembly line is expected to be ready for use in about two weeks. It will be placed in operation with one shift on Aug. 15, according to present plans.

The new shift to be assigned to the first line will add approximately 150 employees to the 831 now working in the plant. Work is continuing meanwhile on conversion of two other lines to 1965 model production. These will be placed in operation as they are completed.

The first line to produce the new automobile frames was placed in operation two weeks ago with one shift. That line was taken out of production of 1964 frames early in June so that an early start could be made on the new model tooling.

The other three lines continued operation until the latter part of June when production of 1964 model frames was completed.

Designate Cahokia Mounds As National Historic Site

Now that it has been certified as eligible, we hope that authorities will submit the Cahokia Mounds State Park on Collinsville road for formal recognition as a national historic site.

Word that the Department of the Interior and the National Park Service are willing to take the way for prompt declaration that the Indian sun temple and other ruins of the Cahokia Mounds are among the top tourist attractions in the nation in historical significance. An appropriate plaque can then be issued, and the site can be featured in governmental records as well as in tourism promotional literature.

It becomes increasingly evident that the Quad-Cities and Illinois Metropolitan Area are far from lacking in either natural or man-made points of interest. The current emphasis on tourism is merely expressing a public awareness of them which of course is the key to attracting more visitors.

River Channel Was Good Enough For Record-Breaking Traffic In 1963

Proposed expenditure of $40 million to $50 million in taxpayers' money for creation of a Mississippi River lake at St. Louis was of dubious value from the start. It appears even less sound with completion of a report showing record river traffic in this area in 1963.

Despite some of the most unusual and adverse weather conditions in history, with ice and a severe drought complicating the Army Corps of Engineers' task of maintaining a navigable channel, the waterborne commerce between the mouths of the Ohio and Missouri rivers soared to an all-time high of 35,726,911 tons, over a half-million above 1962 tonnage.

It is true that the St. Louis gauge showed a reading of "zero" or below on 160 days during 1963. But the Engineer Corps District headed by Col. James B. Menard did its usual outstanding job of keeping enough water in the actual river channel.

There were a few days when conditions were not ideal for shippers, but by and large the problems encountered have been exaggerated due to being confused with the problems of the Mississippi River at St. Louis. These are two entirely different matters. And it should not be forgotten that 1963 involved extraordinary, not ordinary, conditions.

The Port of Granite City was open throughout the year to conveniently serve the entire metropolitan area. The federal government has jurisdiction only over the channel, not the St. Louis harbors, and the record-smashing traffic proves that the middle of the "middle Mississippi" was and is "open for business."

Final Concert In Summer Series At Park Tomorrow

Bringing to a close a most successful 1964 season for the "Music Under The Stars" series of the YMCA, the final concert will be held at the park tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the 27th Street and Delmar Avenue entrance.

The concert is sponsored annually by the Granite City park board, under the direction of Warren G. Simpkins.

For the final concert, a festival of extra-fanciful acts will be presented, including a low band and six guitar chorus, the Junior and senior high ensembles, and the adult choir.

Specialty numbers highlighting tomorrow's music include organ and piano recitals, novelty dance routines, vocal solos and duets.

Stagers, Dancers

Featured performers will include pianists, Miss Linda Hatcher, playing "Charmaine," and Betty Simpson, playing "The Girl Who Came to Supper." Richard Hodshire, organist, whose selections will include "The Girl Who Came to Supper" and "What I Say," a duet by Jackie Odum and Linda Sabo, and "The Girl Who Came to Supper" and "What I Say," a duet by Jackie Odum and Linda Sabo.

"Farewell My Granada," arranged by Charles Koff, vocal solo by Marie Miller, and "The Girl Who Came to Supper" and "What I Say," a duet by Jackie Odum and Linda Sabo.

Four members of the East St. Louis and Interurban Youth Choir, which are making the rounds of the residential neighborhoods in Granite City, have become a source of great pleasure to hundreds of youngsters these warm days.

Sprays of water are tossed ten feet high by the sprinklers, and the children of the neighborhood are in bathing suits or old clothes, run merrily through them, and in watching the fun.

The sprinkling apparatus is moved from neighborhood to neighborhood by the city's maintenance crew. It is connected up about 10 a.m. and kept running until late afternoon. The showers will be continued as long as the weather lasts, a company representative said.

Girl Bitten By Dog

Christine Wieseman, four, 22 East 11th St., was bitten by a dog in the neighborhood of the city's maintenance crew. It was reported to Granite City police at 5:10 p.m. Thursday. The city humane officer was notified.

Information Exchange, Coordination Vital In Solving Mutual Problems

A public housing conference held last week at Park Meadows Center included a conclusion that lack of coordination among agencies involved with some 40 federal assistance programs is causing waste and confusion.

The assertion provides food for thought in Washington, where several agencies sometimes are working in closely related fields but under different regulations and procedures. It also is of interest to communities which find themselves dealing with multiple federal bureaus.

So much is being done or proposed by so many that it has become difficult even to be aware of all the activities and potentialities. Further chaos is inevitable if cities located near each other are working simultaneously but separately to solve federal-related problems that affect them all.

As a bureaucracy, population and the complexities of life grow from year to year, it becomes ever clearer that exchange of information and coordinated planning must be the keys to avoiding the "waste and confusion" warned of at last week's conference.

Hoodlums Taking Over Many Legal Businesses Elsewhere In State

Gangsterism appears to be at low ebb in this region, for which Quad-Cityans should be pleased. But constant vigilance remains important, and curbing development of other parts of Illinois provide definite cause for concern.

Hoodlums not only have a secure foothold in Chicago but are rapidly "cornering the market" in many legitimate businesses through a combination of unlimited funds and brazen displays of "muscle."

An outstanding life magazine article several years ago traced the transition from illegal to legal enterprises. Its conclusion was that a news dispatch last week reporting that a steak house had been damaged by a bomb, raising to 40 the number of Chicago restaurants, night clubs and taverns hit by bombs and popular opinion.

As an ironic footnote to its connotations regarding the "health" of the operators, the latest bombing was directly across the street from the Chicago Board of Health, which lost nine windows in the blast.

As Gov. Kerner has said, "We have seen a show of force that laughs at law enforcement." Local residents have no such immediate problem, but cannot entirely disregard what is happening elsewhere in their same state and nation.

Some day, surely, enough federal, state and community officials—and citizens—will give the problem such high priority that a solution is found.

County Fair To Open Wednesday At Highland

The Madison county fair will open Wednesday at Highland Park and will run through Saturday, Aug. 1.

Among features in the many divisions are the flower, beer and food exhibits on Wednesday and Thursday, the days devoted to agricultural exhibits by young people, and the parade on Friday.

Local 4-H club members will participate in the flower, beer and food exhibits on Wednesday and Thursday, the days devoted to agricultural exhibits by young people, and the parade on Friday.

Insurance On Park Property To Be Increased

The insurance on the Wilson Park property will be increased from the present $84,400 to $121,000, and on the Community Center from $20,000 to $55,000.

The amounts of coverage decided upon for Wilson Park are: $20,000 for building, $20,000 for contents, $20,000 for equipment, and $20,000 for liability. The amounts for the Community Center are: $20,000 for building, $20,000 for contents, $20,000 for equipment, and $20,000 for liability.

Candidates Scheduled

Democratic Day is Friday, and the county clerk's office is ready to state of state, will head a list of leading Democrats on the fairgrounds.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

REV. HARRY COLQUHOUN
Madison Presbyterian Church

"Men To Match My Mountains" is a stirring type of book. "It is," says Robert McCracken, "worth any amount of wisdom, and making habitable the wilderness."

There were a hardy breed of people—the type of people who actually made this country what it is today.

Pioneer Spirit

Unfortunately, we seem to have very little of the pioneer spirit left with us. We have seen a regression in the evolutionary process of our nation. Replacing the pioneer is the selfish "spineless man."

"This is the man who shuns commitments, should cry no crosses, and allows himself to be carried down the mainstream of conformity and popular opinion."

In place of the "rugged individualist" stands the conformist and compromiser.

Compromise Of Principle

Our spinelessness has led us into many compromises, the most devastating of all of these being the compromise we have made with ourselves.

We have allowed the principle of the "shady deal" to take root in our society, and even given consent to the principle in some of the deals we have made.

Utility lies at the basis of many of our motives. It is not the rights or wrongness of a motive upon which we base our choice, but upon such considerations as: "Is it good for my business?" "Will this decision place me in a more favored position with my boss?" "Will this decision bring me closer to obtaining what I am after?"

Moral Values Essential

Yet the fact is that no country without values superior to those of the past and an attitude of respect for the past can stand.

"Enter in by the straight gate," said Christ, "for the way to destruction is wide."

The principles that take us through the past and into the future are honesty, integrity, and industry. The broad view to distinguish between those who make compromises with the best that is in them.

Street Material Bid Plan Up For Final Adoption

A resolution requiring the Granite City street department to buy practically all of its supplies, materials and services under a system of competitive bidding may be considered for final passage in the regular city council meeting tonight.

Introduced by G. H. Sternberg, Seventh Ward alderman, the resolution, which would allow the city to purchase materials, supplies and materials by telephone bidding for smaller purchases.

It specifically provides that "materials, supplies and materials" be purchased by competitive bidding, and that the street department of the city of Granite City be authorized to purchase materials, supplies and materials by telephone bidding for smaller purchases.

Final Group At Girl Scout Camp

The third and last 12-day session of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Councils resident camp at Camp Outpost, Pere Marquette Park, started last week with 105 campers present.

Mrs. Richard Crayser, camp director, a member of the Girl Scout Council, said that the girls praised members of the camp staff for their efficiency and enthusiasm. "Our Girl Scout campers are most fortunate," she said, "to have the benefit of the talent and training of these skilled counselors. We are a happy camp because of the attitude and high morale of the campers."

K of C's To Assist In Local Homecoming

Knights of Columbus Council 1098 will participate in the annual homecoming celebration to be conducted Aug. 14, 15 and 16 by the Granite City Junior High School. The council will announce a meeting at a meeting that night. The council will operate one of the concessions.

The homecoming celebration was approved by the council's executive committee and approved by the council's executive committee and approved by the council's executive committee.

County Seat Service Stations Organized

Edwardsville service station operators followed a lead of Granite City operators and formed their own association last week. It was announced Friday.

The "mutual assistance" group now includes 12 members, who will meet each week at the Edwardsville service station. Other officers are Charles Hogue, vice president; Otis Owens, secretary; and Earl Orman, treasurer.

Gonsey Accepted By Illinois Institute Of Technology

Chief Of Detectives Returns From Conclave

Chief of Detectives George C. Teller returned Thursday from Minneapolis, Minn., where he attended the 49th educational conference of the International Association for Identification.

Lectures were given on such subjects as photography in the small police department, ballistics examination, electronic search of latent fingerprints, the pathologist and identification, and unusual document cases, followed by a mock trial session which included the most difficult questions encountered by document examiners in court.

Of particular interest was a lecture by Dr. I. G. Kersta, acoustics and speech laboratory, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N. J., who spoke on "Voiceprint Identification," a scientific method development by which to photograph, record, classify and identify the voice.

It is similar in some respects to the fingerprint classification system, Teller said, adding that Dr. Kersta, by voiceprint identification, deciphered the message of a pilot in a recent fatal airplane crash.

About 300 members, along with their wives, attended the convention, coming from all parts of the United States, Canada, Egypt, Iran, Japan, the Netherlands, Philippines, Panguyika and West Pakistan. The next will be held at Long Beach, Calif. Chief Teller was accompanied by his wife, Dorothy.

General Steel Sales Decrease, Earnings Rise

Net sales of General Steel Industries dropped from $29,330,402 in the second quarter of calendar 1964 to $23,387,118 in the second quarter of 1964, but net profit rose slightly from $1,082,402 to $1,092,929, W. Ashley Gray Jr., president, announced.

Earnings were 64 cents per common share on 2,021,335 outstanding shares, compared to 63 cents on 2,013,510 in April-June 1963.

For the six months ended June 30, net sales were $51,498,102 compared to $38,294,983 in January-June 1963; net profit was $2,700,581, compared to $2,538,257; and earnings were $1.34 a share, up eight cents from $1.26 the previous year.

Foundry Consolidation. The fact that higher earnings were realized on lower sales volume reflects a favorable product mix during the period, the lower federal income tax rate, and efficiencies resulting from the consolidation at Granite City of the foundry operations of the Commonwealth and Kildstone Divisions," Gray said in releasing the figures.

The exceptionally high level of production at Commonwealth Division and the good operating rates at National Roll Division and Ludlow-Saylor Wire Cloth Co., a subsidiary, are expected to continue during the second half of 1964.

Youths Reminded To Register At Age 18

A youth who fails to register with Selective Service on reaching age 18 is liable to be declared delinquent and ordered for immediate induction into the armed forces. This warning was issued today by John H. Hammack, director of Selective Service for Illinois.

Federal law requires all male citizens to register within five days after their 18th birthday. Aliens must register within six months after entering the United States.

A man should register at the local board in the area of his permanent residence. If away from home, he may register at any convenient board but should be sure to give his permanent address. His registration will then be assigned to his home board.

rates at National Roll Division and Ludlow-Saylor Wire Cloth Co., a subsidiary, are expected to continue during the second half of 1964.

"Although sales and earnings of the St. Louis Car Division will decline in the second half, the excellent first half results and the good performance expected in the other company units make it clear that the full year of 1964 will be the second best in the history of the corporation," Gray said.

Mouser said a new super-market is being built near the post office building and is expected to be completed within 30 days. He is constructing the building for Richard Hughes of Mitchell Foundation work and plumbing installation have been completed on the supermarket, which will measure 88 by 88 feet.

Air-Conditioned

The air-conditioned building has ample space for parking and movement of postal vehicles.

Postmaster General John A. Gronowski explained today that his department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Gronowski commented, "This project is in accordance with our policy of building new post offices only where they are needed. We are constantly re-assessing our construction program to determine whether previous buildings can be altered or remodeled to take care of our expanding mail volume."

"We now have about 45,000 postal locations throughout the country handling an anticipated volume of 72.2 billion pieces of mail for the 1964-65 fiscal year. By 1970 it is expected to rise to 90 billion."

"Our employees are doing a great job of processing the mail. But it is clear that we are to meet the demands of our growing population we must make use of the best modern equipment available in areas where it is economically justified. We are also constantly seeking to develop new ideas and new postal techniques, such as ZIP Code, to help process the mail more efficiently and economically."

GOP Field Narrows In Appellate Judge Voting Tuesday

Several Republican judges in the 37-county fifth judicial district have announced that they have no plans to become candidates for three positions of judge of the appellate court.

The announcements improve the chances for the nomination of Harold O. Gwiltin, Alton attorney, who is being endorsed by the Madison county Republican delegation to the GOP nominating convention at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Mt. Vernon.

Gwiltin accepted the bid to become a candidate at a recent meeting of the Madison County GOP Committee.

Judge C. E. Wright of Carbondale, current appointee to an appellate court post, will receive an endorsement as a candidate from the Illinois Bar Association, said he has no interest in being nominated, as he plans to run for election as circuit judge in the First Judicial Circuit.

He also said he knows of no candidates who are actively seeking the GOP nominations.

Others who have been named for people nomination are Rola W. Griffith Jr., also of Alton, Circuit Judge Quinten Spivey of East St. Louis, James B. Wynn of Centralia and Ralph Vandever of Hillsboro.

Peaton Kinney of Murphysboro, who had been considered, said he will not be in the state for the meeting and is not an active candidate.

In past elections, the Democratic party has shown an advantage of about 50,000 votes in the 37 counties. The Democrats nominated three candidates for the positions last Tuesday.

Madison county will send 150 delegates and alternates to the convention, most of them pledged to Gwiltin. The salary of an appellate judge is $25,000 per year.

This will be the first time such judges will be elected, as provided under the new judicial system. Previously, they were selected by the State Supreme Court from among the justices of the circuit judges. In the future they will run on their records without party affiliation.

Frank Walker of Mt. Vernon, chairman of the Jefferson County Republican Central Committee, will preside as temporary chairman. State Rep. Fred Brannon of Centralia will be temporary secretary. The keynote speaker will be Elroy Sanquist Jr. of Chicago, GOP candidate for attorney general.

County Museum To Combine Beauty, History

Madison county's new historical museum, the 128-year-old Weir House at 715 North Main street, Edwardsville, is in the final stages of restoration and decoration. Mrs. A. Austin Lewis of Madison reported this week.

Mrs. Lewis, chairman of public relations for the county historical society, said the new site of the museum will open early in the fall with eight rooms holding public exhibits.

Built about 1836 with bricks shipped from New England by flatboat down the Ohio River and up the Mississippi, the house was purchased by the county historical society in June. The museum was formerly located on the third floor of the county courthouse.

The basement of the three-story building has been converted into public restrooms, and two rooms in the attic will be used for storage. The first floor is divided into north and south double parlors, while the second floor contains four separate rooms.

Authentic Wallpaper
The hall inside the main entrance features wallpaper of the same design as that used in the restoration of President Andrew Johnson's home near Greenville, Tenn.

The south double parlor named in honor of Elijah P. Lovejoy of Alton, will be papered in a gold-and-white "director" design, printed from an old French wallpaper roller of the 18th century in a formal design on silk paper.

A piano made in London in 1772 and black marble pieces, fashionable in the 1820-1830 period, are among the items that have been contributed from other Lovejoy possessions when complete.

Painting of the north double parlors, which will be used as exhibits—conference rooms, has been done in flat white and a shade of Williamsburg blue. Woodwork in the restored rooms is done in glossy white to simulate woodwork of the period, which was done with a linseed paint and then varnished for gloss.

Original Pine Planks

Floors on the ground level have been sanded and finished, while the original white pine planks of random width have been preserved in the hall and south double parlors.

A number of windows in the attic still retain the original panes of glass.

New work completed on the structure has been the installation of steel beams for reinforcement of every level of the house; complete rewiring and a new heating system, including and connecting of basement floor.

Two rooms have been converted on the second floor. The Indian room will be a display room for Indian artifacts from John R. Sully collection.

Slater, who lived in Madison county all his life, gathered more than 3000 artifacts before his death in 1941.

Children's Room

Madison county school children who contributed $2000 to the new museum are the honorees of the Children's room, which will house a 6-by-8 foot model of Fort Russell, built in 1812 about two miles northwest of Edwardsville.

Named for its commanding officer, Col. William Russell, the fort was headquarters for 70 companies of local "Rangers" and one company of regulars. It was abandoned after the War of 1812 and destroyed by fire in 1857.

Lack of funds is impeding completion of the two second-floor rooms. Proposals have been made to use one as a research library and the other as a bedroom-closet room.

The county historical society hopes eventually to feature farm exhibits and possibly a wedding and party costumes worn by Edwardsville women in the nineteenth century.

Work at the museum this week involves sorting and cataloging the plethora of objects available for exhibit, Mrs. Lewis said. The job involves harmonizing the objects with the rooms and fitting in the old showcases brought from the courthouse with the new environment.

In order for the historical objects to be displayed properly, funds will have to be raised for new display cases, she commented.

Among the items in the museum are an 1871 oxen yoke, the last made in the county; a dinner bell cast in 1822 and located across from the courthouse in the old Wabash Hotel at Main and Union streets; a 100-year-old cradle; an 1893 Edison Kinetoscope; more than 150 manuscripts covering topics from the history of

The historical society hopes eventually to feature farm exhibits and possibly a wedding and party costumes worn by Edwardsville women in the nineteenth century.

It will be maintained by a one-half mill tax levied by the county board of supervisors under a recently approved Illinois statute. Madison county is one of the few counties taking advantage of the new law.

One Of 11 Best In Illinois
Mrs. Lewis noted that only 25 counties or cities in the state have either historical societies or museums.

Bernard Wax, museum consultant for the state historical society, said recently that only 10 other museums in Illinois are comparable to the Madison county project.

Mrs. Lewis said the museum will feature circulating exhibits. Only about one-third to one-half

Mayors, Simon Urge That More Rt. 70 Exits Be Marked

William S. Krause, state highway district engineer, was sent two letters Friday citing a need for additional Interstate Route 70 signs pointing the way to the Quad-Cities and points of interest in this area.

State Senate Paul Simon enclosed a July 16 Press-Record editorial on the subject and asked Krause to study the proposal. Text of a letter to the district engineer from Mayors Leonard R. Davis, (Granite City), Stephen Macraes (Madison), John E. Vele (Venice) and Thomas Stalcup (Pontoon Beach) follows:

"We, the undersigned, mayors of the Quad-City area, comprising the cities of Granite City, Madison, Venice and Pontoon Beach, respectfully call to your attention the fact that when traveling Interstate Routes Nos. 70 and 55, and especially upon returning to your own home town in this vicinity, there is only one marked exit that advises the motorist when to turn to reach this all-important heavily industrialized area.

"That is shortly before entering the city of East St. Louis, where a sign reads to 'Granite City' with no mention of the Cities that one must pass through on the way to Granite City, namely and in geographical order, the cities of Venice and Madison.

"From a standpoint of service to this area and civic pride, we will greatly appreciate your checking into the situation and recommending the installation of signs that would advise both the southbound and Northbound motorist the most feasible way to the Quad Cities area, including the names of the four cities mentioned above.

"We all feel that this is very important to the general welfare of our area and in that return we earnestly solicit your favorable consideration."

MORE ABOUT Lengthy Rail Tax

ruling in August is regarded as due to a legislative act passed in 1963 under which the school districts—which have the biggest stake in the protested tax—will be permitted to file amended claims for state aid if a decision is handed down by Aug. 26.

This law, however, would allow the school district to claim only the difference in funds represented by valuation changes as fixed by the courts' decision.

Thirteen railroads are involved in the case—the Alton and Southern, Chicago Burlington and Quincy, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Chicago and North western, Gulf Mobile and Ohio, Illinois Central, Illinois Terminal, Missouri Bridge & Belt, New York Central, Nickelplate, Pennsylvania, Terminal Railroad Association and Washab.

Of these, six have been litigating the claims fully. They are the C & Q, Chicago and Northwestern, GM&O, Missouri Bridge and Belt, New York Central and the Nickelplate. The others had moved toward settling the cases but became a part of the consolidated case a few months ago to avoid the possibility of going over the same testimony in separate cases.

The tax protests go back to 1957 and cover a six year period. More than 50 objections are filed protests each year, but only about 13 railroads, with all of the lines having objected to the taxes.

More than 100 and 1963 and some of them having objections for all six years. Most of the roads filed protests each year, but some of those cases were settled.

103 Taxing Agencies
The actual amount of money involved in the objection cases is estimated at $2,000,000, with the school districts holding the biggest stake—approximately 70% of the total. The protested tax money involves funds of 103 taxing districts.

Throughout the current hearing, which got underway in May, the railroads have based their demands for a refund of taxes on the fundamental claim that they were over-assessed during the years for which tax objections are on file because their property was valued at 100% of "full, fair cash value" while local property was assessed at 50% or 60% of full value.

Generally, county attorneys have gone along with the idea that local property assessments are from 50% to 60% of full value, but they have maintained at the same time that the road property valuations are far below 100% of cash value.

Extensive Evidence
Because of this particular issue, the hearings have involved presentation of large amounts of documentary evidence by both sides in an attempt to substantiate their various claims as to assessment ratios and the methods used by assessing officials in determining valuations, ratios and equalization factors.

Leading attorneys for the railroad include Dobbie of Springfield, who has been carrying the main load of the railroad evidence, Ted Schuster of Chicago, Gordon Burroughs of Edwardsville, James Parham of East St. Louis and J. F. Schaffly Jr. of Alton.

The county's case has been handled principally by Bernard of Granite City, assistant state's attorney in charge of tax matters. Bernard several times was joined in the case by Assistant State's Attorney Joseph Bartylak and State's Attorney Dick H. Hudge Jr.

Originally the tax objection cases were filed in the old county court but were moved into jurisdiction of the circuit court when the new court system went into effect January 1. As chief judge at the time, Judge Monroe took over the cases to consolidate them and move them toward trial hearing.

The hearings were highlighted by several trips to Springfield and Chicago for deposition hearings requested by Bernard for the county.

On these occasions, Judge Monroe accompanied attorneys to be on hand to make rulings on the spot.

One of these depositions was obtained in Chicago from Harry Hulman, director of the Illinois State Department of Revenue and ex-cited the first occasion on which a director of the department had testified in a tax case.
